

Dr. Eduard SCHENUIT

Schenuit serves ZwickRoell as Industry Manager Metals since 2005. He started his industry career in 1990 as Product Manager for Hardness Testing Instruments at Krautkraemer a company of EMERSON St. Louis (US). He holds a Ph.D. degree (Dr. rer. nat.) in Physics and an M.Sc. degree (Diplom-Physiker) in Experimental Physics from Hamburg and Bonn University in Germany. He is chairperson of a technical committee of the German Engineers Association VDI (GMA) for Hardness Testing and a member of several national and international standardization committees in Mechanical Testing of Metals.

