

Robert Strehle, ZwickRoell GmbH & Co. KG

Robert Strehle studied Physics in Germany (University of Constance)

He joined Zwick in 1995 in the testXpert software team.

Later he became Product Manager testXpert, where he was responsible for the launch of testXpert and testXpert II.

In 2006 he joined the Industry Management and took over the responsibility for Academia. From 2006 to 2009 he started this new role in South East Asia based in Singapore.

In 2009 Robert relocated back to Germany and resumed this position for the complete ZwickRoell group.

Since first of July 2019 Robert rejoined the Product Management testXpert again.